Mission Report

Since our last newsletter, we have flown 28 mission flights. Terry Chapman flew Mark Reeder to Orlando, FL for treatment of Stage 4 cancer. John Newton and Cecil Chandler assisted on the return flight, but sadly Mark died a few days later. Please continue to pray for his wife, Starla. Lynn McNorton flew Donna Daniels to Houston, TX for treatment of her osteocarcinoma cancer.

Ricky Carnes and Jason Howell assisted as we flew Jeremy Sartain home to Crowder, MS after a stay in the hospital with a serious case of cellulitis. Bob Eubanks flew Edward Coward and Carrie Chavers, both with cancer, to Houston. Iris Prosch was flown from Mobile to Raleigh, NC for treatment of a brain tumor. Fred Kelley assisted as we flew Charles Estill from Eufaula, AL to Mattoon, IL. He was suffering from dementia and second degree malnutrition. Sadly, Charles passed away a few days after arriving home.

We also flew Diane Mullins from Grove Hill to Houston for treatment of cancer of the brain. Bob Ellis assisted as we flew Nell Kimbrell of Monroeville to Raleigh to be with her family. We also assisted First Baptist Church of Montgomery in their efforts to minister to the people of Haiti. Susan Anderson assisted as we flew her brother, Andy Anderson home from Houston after treatment of adenoid cystic carcinoma. Please pray for Andy and his family as he battles this disease.

Rachel Campbell of Calhoun, GA was flown to the Mayo Clinic in Jacksonville, FL where she received specialized treatment of acute intestinal porphyria. Please pray that God will lead them to the next course of treatment for this rare disease. Fred Kelley assisted as we flew Diane Mullins back to Houston for more cancer treatments. Mike Mixon and Fred Kelley assisted us as we flew Joann Bogsworth from Houma, LA to Birmingham for specialized care of her broken arms.

Fred Kelley and Lindy Lee assisted as we flew "Bang" Collins from Allendale, SC to Houston for cancer treatment. We also flew Sandra Horne of Dothan to Houston for cancer treatment. Sadly, Sandra passed away a few days later. Please pray for her family. Ronnie Jones of Franklin was flown to Houston, and Dr. Bob Eubanks flew him back to Monroeville. Iris Prosch was flown from Mobile to Raleigh, NC for treatment of a brain tumor.

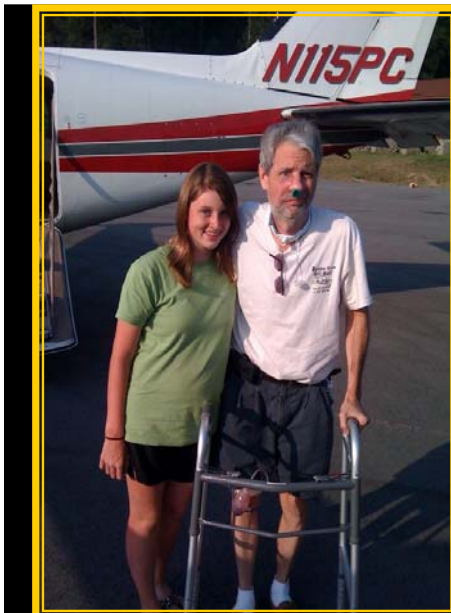

Our Chaplain, Fred Kelley assisted on many of these flights, but he himself is in need of a heart transplant. Please pray that God will give Fred a "new heart" so he may continue serving others.
