Mission Report

Since our last newsletter, we have flown 52 missions. Gwen Gaston of Mobile, AL was flown to Houston, TX for aplastic anemia treatment, and Susan Forehand was flown the same day from Houston to Pensacola. Susan suffers with renal cell cancer. Merle Barmoy (who is paralyzed) was flown from St Petersburg, FL to Cumberland, MD. Marshall Hinton of Demopolis, AL was flown several times to Houston with lung cancer. Sadly, Marshall passed away after the treatments. Bobby Wyatt was flown from Demopolis to Houston for treatment of prostate cancer. Mike Coleman of Jackson, AL was flown to Houston for treatment of brain cancer. Sadly, Mike passed away earlier this month. Patrick Goff was flown from Fairhope, AL to Houston for treatment of recto sigmoid cancer.

Mike Parham of Jackson was flown to the Mayo Clinic for deep vein thrombosis. Teresa Enders was flown from Houston with ovarian cancer. Sadly, Teresa passed away shortly after returning home. Dorlean Gregson was flown from Monroeville, AL to Gainesville, FL for spinothsis. Bo Haslbauer was flown to Houston for treatment of bladder cancer. Jim Warkentin was flown to Gulf Shores, AL after acute leukemia treatment. Jim later passed away. 5-year-old Alyssa Copeland was flown to the Mayo Clinic for treatment of brain Cancer. Helen Chickering was flown from Panama City, FL to Denver, CO suffering from a spinal abscess.

Glenn Ray was flown to Houston for lung cancer treatment. Sadly, Glenn passed away just a few weeks ago. Roger Jennings of Monroeville was flown to Houston for treatment of sarcoma in his leg. Juri Johnson of Loxley, AL was flown to Dallas, TX for treatment of chronic severe migraines. Ashley Roberts of Tuscaloosa, AL was flown to Houston for bone marrow failure. Mary Lee McCorvey was flown home to Akron, OH. Mary suffers from diabetes and a broken ankle. Joseph Weaver of Brewton was flown to Houston for mantle cell lymphoma treatment. Carrie Reese of Bay Minette, AL was flown to Virginia for treatment of Cushing's disease. Carrie later passed away unexpectedly.

John Weaver of Demopolis was flown from Jackson, MS with congestive heart failure. Morgan Chesser of Stockton, AL was flown to and from Houston with B-cell Lymphoma. We are sad to report that Mr. Chesser passed away. Mallory Mixon was flown to Gainesville, FL for treatment of Tourette's syndrome. JoAnn Knudson was flown from Deland, FL to Lock Haven, PA. Jeanette Huggins of Monroeville was flown home from Dallas. Haley White, who was on a mission trip to Haiti, was flown home to Auburn, AL after contracting Dengue fever and spending a week in a Miami hospital.

Please add all of these dear people and their families to your prayer lists. We had many more long-distance missions than normal, and we also lost more people than usual. After reading this report, you may want to praise God for your health, and the health of your family and friends. Special thanks to all of you who responded so kindly to our financial needs. God bless you all in 2014!
